Quiterie Foulet appointed Deputy CEO of Limagrain

Quiterie Foulet, 42, has been appointed Deputy CEO of Limagrain Group. In this role, she will continue to lead the Human Resources department while also overseeing the IT, Legal & Compliance, and Audit & Risk Management departments. Additionally, she is responsible for coordinating corporate functions and reports directly to Sébastien Chauffaut, CEO of Limagrain.

Quiterie has been with Limagrain Group for over 10 years, holding various positions in Human Resources. She became Director of Remuneration and Employee Relations in 2018, before being appointed Group Chief Human Resources Officer in 2021.

Quiterie began her career with Valeo, where she was Training and Internal Communication Manager from 2005 to 2008, and then Personnel Development Manager from 2008 to 2011. She moved to Capgemini in 2011 as Human Resources Manager before joining Limagrain Group in 2013.

Quiterie graduated from ESC Clermont Business School and holds a degree in Labor Law from the University of Clermont-Ferrand.

Sébastien Chauffaut, CEO of Limagrain, commented: “I’m delighted to announce Quiterie Foulet’s appointment as Deputy CEO of Limagrain. For the past decade, Quiterie has worked diligently to enhance our Human Resources policy and expand its international scope. As a member of the Executive Committee, she has played an invaluable role in organizing our efforts. In her new role, Quiterie will facilitate the deployment of our strategic road map, Ambition 2030, by ensuring Limagrain’s core functions collaborate seamlessly. This appointment perfectly aligns the roles of the seven Executive Committee members. They all join me in wishing her every success in her new role.”

Limagrain is a global company with deep local roots. Our parent company is an agricultural cooperative based in the Limagne-Val d’Allier plain, in the heart of Central France’s Auvergne region, while we are an international seed and agri-food group with some 9,500 employees working in 53 countries.

We are the world’s fourth-largest seed group and generated €2.451 billion in revenue in 2022-2023, plus an additional €775 million in revenue from joint ventures with our strategic partners.
